

Sponsorship Opportunities

Dear Potential Sponsor,

Outstanding opportunities are available for your organization to provide sponsorship support to the triennial 2009 Idaho Conference on Housing- October 19-20, 2009 at the Doubletree Hotel in Boise, Idaho. This dynamic two-day event brings together housing industry groups, business and political leaders, and hundreds of attendees from all over the state. Conference planning partners will create a forum for dialogue and collaboration on our state's most pressing housing issues. Workshops will offer attendees an opportunity to learn, ask questions, exchange ideas, and network with some of the most effective leaders within the housing industry. In addition, attendees will have an opportunity to listen to several visionary and thought-provoking nationally recognized keynote speakers. Also there will be an exhibit hall featuring housing industry specific vendors and meals will be offered. This is an event you won't want to miss sponsoring or attending!

Sponsorship support for the 2009 Idaho Conference on Housing enables us to defray conference costs, helping to make the conference more inclusive and accessible. In addition, sponsorship funds will also provide the nonprofit community with scholarships to individuals who may otherwise be unable to attend this important conference. Scholarship support includes assistance with registration costs based on need. In addition, your conference sponsorship allows you to highlight your organization's commitment and significant role in addressing Idaho's housing needs to an audience from all over the state. It is because of the generous support from organizations like yours, that we are able to make this triennial conference one of the most successful housing industry events held in the state.

On behalf of the many planning partners committed to the 2009 Idaho Conference on Housing, I invite you to participate as a corporate sponsor at this conference. We appreciated the numerous contributions, support, and attendance at the 2006 conference, and we look forward to your participation at the 2009 conference.

Thank you for considering our corporate sponsorship invitation. Please review and complete the sponsorship form by August 14, 2009.
